Sustaining capacity building for strategic advocacy

With the support of the CSF grant, the project aims to improve COPE’s capacity in governance, programming, fund-raising, and advocacy to help strengthen ties to community leaders, policy makers, and other CSOs to address the community’s top priorities.

Project results:

Serving communities better by strengthening ties to leaders, and women and youth organisations

Key activities include:

- Training COPE staff on governance, NNGOs Computerised accounting systems, supply chain management, safety, and communication
- Creating a staff code of conduct policy and a strategy for resource mobilisation engagement in advocacy for women's rights to own land, properties, and other assets, as well as community education on climate dynamics
