Country/Region	South Sudan – Bor County, Jonglei State

Institutional Capacity, Advocacy Resilience, and Community Engagement (ICARE)

With the support of the CSF grant, the project aims to increase CINA's organisational capacity by training employees and management to fulfil their responsibilities; and also aims to mobilise community members to engage in meaningful ways on issues that affect them.

Project results:

Strengthening community structures to address local issues

Key activities include:

- Training employees on company policies, advocacy, and resource mobilisation
- Conducting a workshop with board members to consolidate organisational policies
- Training of teachers and SMCs on the South Sudan Child Act, and National Code of Conduct for teachers
- Forming male champion groups and collaborating with other CSOs to end child marriage and evaluate marriageable age customs
